HOSA Creed

I BELIEVE in the Health Care Profession.

I BELIEVE in the profession in which I am being trained and in the opportunities which my training offers.

I BELIEVE in education.

I BELIEVE that through education I will be able to make the greatest use of my skills, knowledge and experience in order to become a contributing member of the health care team and of my community.

I BELIEVE in myself.

I BELIEVE that by using the knowledge and skills of my profession I will become more aware of myself. Through fulfilling these goals, I will become a more responsible citizen.

I BELIEVE that each individual is important in his or her own right; therefore, I will treat each person with respect and love.

To this end, I dedicate my training, my skills, and myself to serve others through Health Occupation Students of America.

HOSA Honors Patricia Dennison

The Pat Dennison Dynasty

While some people soar, few create a dynasty. Pat Dennison's dynasty includes students, her own children and even a granddaughter because of her real love for HOSA and the health care industry.

Although recently retired (12/2012), she has been involved in HOSA for 31 years (prior to HOSA, the first four she was in VICA-now called SkillsUSA). To her credit, seven students served as state HOSA officers and one (her son, Jarred) served as the national HOSA vice president during the 1994-95 school year. Even after she left the classroom, her granddaughter Caitlyn became a state officer.

Pat is proud of the fact that her students won or placed in state HOSA competitive events every year during her 31 years of teaching. Several of her state award winners also placed in national competition.

HOSA according to Pat, "Health Science without HOSA does not make up a whole. Health Science gives students the knowledge and technical skills needed for the next step in life - whether entering the workforce or continuing into postsecondary education. HOSA is the icing on the cake. It involves students in chapter projects, community service, competitive events, and leadership development."
